

Presentation Template

Welcome to our template for presentations and keynotes.

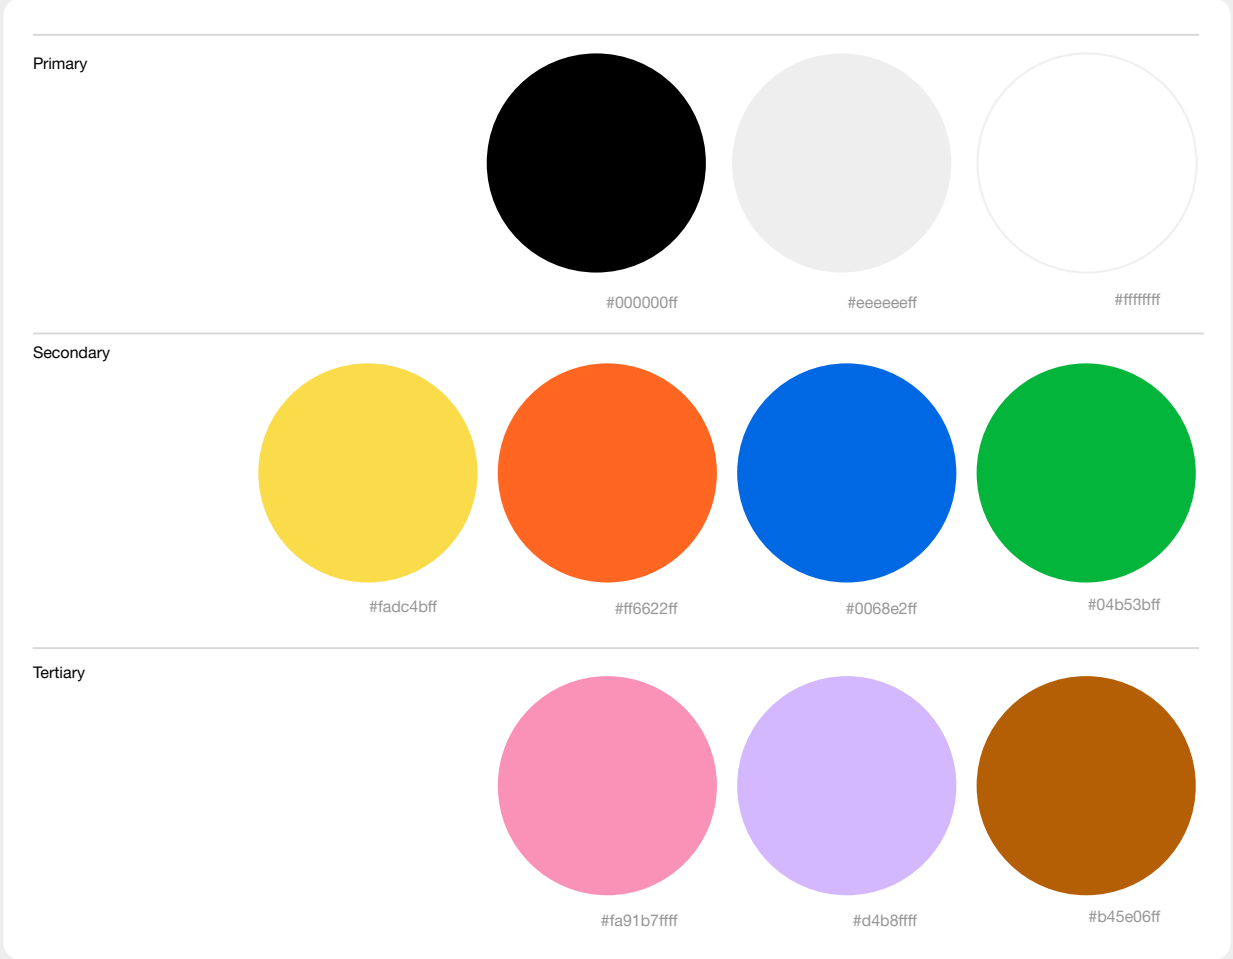

Our aim was to make a simple template that enables anyone to make clear, visually striking and interesting presentations. We hope it can be helpful for you too. Copy paste the slides into a new deck and edit away.

Secondary
Is our go to brand colours for all matter physical, or digital.

Tertiary
The third level is explanatory and not fixed, added colours needs to be complementary to levels, and align with our general expression and mandate at hand. This level is only to be reserved for specific and outstanding situations.

Type sizes

A simple range of type sizes is used to produce the various typographic elements of the system. Line height values for each type of content have also been established.

How to Highlighting

Levels of grey

The primary method of highlighting information in the presentation template is to emphasize certain words by leaving them black, while turning any adjacent words grey, using the Text colour submenu.

Colour highlight

The secondary method of highlighting is information is the more standard practice of choosing a word and selecting the template yellow as its highlight colour using the highlight colour submenu.

Levels of grey

Graphical Devices

Levels of grey

Image masks present throughout the templates always have rounded corners. All of their corners are set to a radius of approximately 0.25 cm

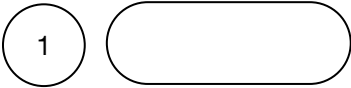

Shapes and icons

Some shapes and icons are added in certain pages to create more dynamic compositions. Since they can't be set as placeholders in the masters, they should be copied and pasted where necessary.

Introduction to the chapter. We aim for clear communication

The background of the slide is an abstract composition of various shades of green and yellow. It features several overlapping, semi-transparent geometric shapes, including triangles and rectangles, which create a sense of depth and movement. A prominent white sphere is positioned in the upper left quadrant, partially obscured by the green shapes. The overall aesthetic is modern and artistic, with a focus on color and form.
